Everybody told Chris that he was too small to play basketball. But he ignored them all...because he had big dreams.
This book is yours to keep at home and enjoy over and over again! Here is a way you can take what you learned from the book and apply it at home.

Share with the student a hobby of yours.
- Why do you enjoy it?
- Did you learn it yourself or did somebody teach you?

Use this book to talk to your student about their hobbies:
- Talk about something they are good at.
- Ask them how they can improve at their hobby.

Take action, try hard, keep practicing, explore a different way, ask someone for advice, do your best, learn how others did it, build upon your strengths, review and fix mistakes, and don’t give up!

As a family, set aside some time to engage in your hobbies together.
